Number of Sunday schools, 656; Sunday school teachers, 4,205; Sunday school scholars, 36,498.

The Report of the Sunday School Board was read by W. A. Rogers and adopted. (See Reports, p. 25.)

Out of $7,000 reported as necessary for the worn-out preachers, and widows and orphans of preachers, it appears that the collection for this object amounted to $5,190.05, which had been distributed among the respective claimants. (See Reports, p. 33.)

It was resolved that hereafter the sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be celebrated at the opening of our annual sessions, and that Pastors in charges where our sessions shall be held be requested to make provision for this service. (See Resolutions, p. 102.)

A resolution was adopted constituting the Presiding Elders a Standing Committee to appoint the usual Committees ordered by the Conference, and requesting that they meet the day preceding each annual session in order to prepare these nominations, and, further, that they make their report early on the first day of the session.

In grateful recognition of God's blessing upon us as a Conference in the unprecedented additions to our membership during the year, by request of the President pro tem. the body joined in singing the Long Metre Doxology.

Rev. G. G. Smith, of the North Georgia Conference, gave words of wholesome counsel on the importance of looking after our young converts.

SIXTH DAY—NIGHT SESSION.

METHODIST CHURCH,
ORANGEBURG, S. C., December 20, 1886.

Conference met at the appointed hour, W. Martin, by appointment of the Bishop, in the chair.

Devotional exercises were conducted by J. M. Pike.

A Report from the Domestic Mission Board was read and adopted.

Resolutions of thanks to the people of Orangeburg for their unbounded hospitality in entertaining the Conference during the session just closing; of thanks for the use of pulpits of other denominations; of appreciation of the Presidency of Bishop Granberry, and of thanks to the various railroads that have extended to us the courtesy of reduced rates, were unanimously passed by a rising vote. (See Resolutions, p. 102.)

Spartanburg was selected as the place for holding our next session.

By resolution the first Friday in May was appointed as a day of Fasting and Special Prayer that the Lord would send more laborers into his vineyard, and that He would endue them with power from on high. (See Resolutions, p. 103.)

It was resolved to request the Bishops at their annual meeting to fix the time for holding our annual sessions hereafter as near the middle of November as may be practicable; the Secretary to inform the Bishops of this action.

Special prayer was offered for Rev. M. Brown and family.

The Bishop took the chair.

The Report of the Board of Church Extension was read, and received as information. (See Reports, p. 28.)

The Board of Domestic Missions submitted a statement of the appropriations made for the ensuing year.

The Joint Board of Finance for 1887 was announced. (See Conference Officers, Boards, etc., p. 2.)

The Domestic Mission Board recommended that, where it is practicable, a part, at least, of the assessments for the support of our Domestic Missions be taken up early in the ensuing year.

They recommend, further, that there be no increase in Foreign Missionary appropriations for the ensuing year.

Conference having finished its business, a stanza was sung. J. M. Carlisle led in prayer. After which the Bishop addressed the Conference, and announced the appointments for 1887, (see p. 19,) and the body adjourned sine die with the Doxology, and Benediction by the Bishop.

WM. C. POWER, Secretary.

REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

"The entrance of Thy word giveth light."—Psalm 119, 130.

The Committee to whom was committed the consideration of the Bible Cause, respectfully submit the following Report:

We may be permitted to begin this Report with a brief extract from the Seventieth Annual Report of the American Bible Society: "Men die, institutions live. At the age of seventy the human frame shows signs of abating force and eventual decay; but in organizations for Christian work another law prevails—a law of constant growth, of abiding energy, of increasing power, of enlarged efficiency."

The American Bible Society had a small beginning seventy years ago; but in its seventieth year, ending in May, 1886, it issued, in over three hundred different languages and dialects, 1,437,440 volumes of the Holy Scriptures, to almost every nation under the heavens; a larger number than ever before in any one year. Showing that this grand enterprise, with increasing years, is putting on increasing power and vigor for still more extensive usefulness, and still bringing forth fruit in old age.

In the seventy years of its existence the American Bible Society has issued, in all, 46,877,646 copies of the Word of God. What tongue can tell, what pen describe, the effect these millions of that blessed word, "the entrance" of which "giveth light," has upon our own country and upon the heathen world, "the dark places of the earth full of the habitations of cruelty," to whom its leaves have gone so freely, so widespread for the healing of the nations? To how many has it been "a lamp unto their feet and a light unto their path?" But there is still much, very much, to be done. Millions of men and women are still groping their way in darkness—strangers to that precious Word—who have still never seen its glorious light nor felt its saving power. Even in our own highly favored State, there is, after all our efforts, still a painful destitution of the Word of Life, notwithstanding the American Bible Society has its agents, with its auxiliaries all the time more or less employed, in supplementing our wants.

These facts call loudly for our continued sympathies, our efforts and our prayers in behalf of the Society and its agencies. We therefore earnestly recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That we renew our former pledges to the American Bible Society, and our unceasing interest in the great work of Bible distribution.

2nd. That we will welcome the agents of the American Bible Society to our several fields of labor, and co-operate with them in their high and holy work.

3rd. That we will at least once in the coming year present the claims of the Bible Cause to our congregations, and urge them to a deeper interest in its operations.

WILLIAM MARTIN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals have considered the interests committed to it, and report:

I. Our Publishing House continues to prosper. The buildings have been repaired and improved. The business has increased. The debt has been reduced to about $70,000 or $80,000.

II. The Books of the House are about as carried by the management last year. Our Standards are kept in stock, a few new books have been issued, and the supply for Sunday school libraries is substantially as heretofore. The Committee still believe that there is not such a collection of books for our people and for Sunday school libraries as is needed. We should be able to furnish better and more attractive reading than we do.

The New Discipline has had a large circulation, but deserves a place in every Methodist home. It is the best arranged Discipline which has been issued, and there are many changes in our law which ought to be known by all.

III. Our periodicals are creditable, and are steadily growing in circulation. The Nashville Advocate has improved. The senior editor preserves his well established reputation, and the assistant editor, the Rev. Warren A. Candler, has already proven his ability as a writer. The paper now has about 27,000 subscribers. The Review is now published by our House, and is edited by the Rev. W. P. Harrison, Book Editor of our Church. It is issued six times a year, and the price is but $2.00 per annum. Liberal support is promised, and the periodical will have every chance for success. Our Sunday School Magazine, Lesson Quarterlies and Papers are very good productions, and are widely used. The Committee wish that our Church had a well graded series of Catechisms. Nothing can ground our children in Methodist doctrine so well as the study of the Catechism in home and Sunday school. So important is this matter that the Committee urge the circulation and use of the Catechism we have, until all we need is furnished.

IV. Our House now advertises a supply of cheap Tracts. It is unfortunate that this means of doing Christian work has been neglected. The new venture of our House affords an opportunity to restore it.

V. The General Conference ordered a revision of the Hymn Book. A competent Committee has been appointed to do this work. This task will require much time and labor. It is to be hoped that the Committee of Revision will retain most of the purely Wesleyan hymns in the present book, and will be slow to admit too many songs of the type now prevailing. Meantime the present book should be reduced in price to the lowest possible amount, in view of its early displacement by the book now being prepared.

VI. The Southern Christian Advocate, our Conference organ, deserves particular mention. The editor has been fully equal to his work, and in the past year has given to our Church an excellent paper. But good as our Advocate has been in past years, we are promised marked improvement for the future. The contract to publish it four years, beginning January 1st, 1887, has been awarded to Mr. Charles A. Calvo, Jr., of Columbia, S. C., who is to issue, with good paper, new type and improved presses and material, a six-column, eight-page newspaper, and to do all the work in first class style. The price to subscribers remains at $2.00 a year, except that preachers will now receive the paper at $1.00 a year. In addition to these improvements, the editor has secured valuable help in an important department. Dr. James H. Carlisle will furnish the Sunday School Lesson studies. This supplies a need which has been felt by many readers, and the well known ability of Dr. Carlisle assures the most scholarly and striking commentary upon the subjects studied. Our Advocate needs a standing department on Missions. With that, it will be all we can wish for.

The Committee desire to say that it is necessary that our preachers and people should redouble their efforts to sustain our home paper. The publisher is planning liberally, the editor promises faithful work, and they should be sustained. The circulation can and ought to be increased to 6,000 or 7,000 subscribers. The Committee urge that distinct and earnest effort be made to raise the circulation to 6,000 in the coming year.

In concluding their Report, the following recommendations are offered:

1. The Committee renew the recommendation that our Publishing House should use greater effort to furnish better books, particularly for Sunday school libraries, and at reduced prices.

2. The Committee recommend that the price of Sunday school periodicals be reduced further and to the lowest price, so as to place them in easiest reach of the poorest of our people.

3. The Committee further recommend that our people, our churches and our Sunday schools be urged to use our own books and periodicals.

4. As a special Committee has been charged with the subject of colportage, this Committee simply reaffirms its belief that such work is urgently demanded.

Respectfully submitted.

JOHN O. WILLSON, Chairman.
W. L. GLAZE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The development of the educational idea indicates the State and the Church as the future purveyor of higher education. Primary education seems solely for the State. The State has entered this field as an active competitor of the Church. The competition should incite us to vigorous effort. It will operate as a test, both of the vitality of the Church colleges and of the devotion of the Church to them. It will kill the unsustained institutions, or arouse the Church to their patriotic support. We need fear this rivalry only if we neglect to endow and patronize our own colleges, and, failing in this, we shall deserve the disastrous results of our own disloyalty.

Wofford College.

This institution needs endowment, needs students. Ten years of unstinted labor to supply these needs have realized little for the former, and have seen a steady decrease, of late, in the number of the latter. The great need of Wofford is not money, poor though she is; is not students, necessary as they are. It is something from which both endowment and patronage shall result, with the directness and certainty of effect from cause. That need is the intelligent appreciation, the loyal devotion, the active support of South Carolina Methodism. The prime condition of this most needful succor is diligent, faithful labor on the part of our preachers in representing the College before the people, at all times, in public and private, thus acquainting them not only with its claims and needs, but also with its aims and methods, and its uses and benefits as well. Without this diligence of the ministry, and this devotion of the Church, the largest endowment would only emphasize the futility of the most admirable provision when unappreciated by its beneficiaries. This devotion and support Wofford has not yet gained from its own people. It is the boast of the State College that nearly fifty young men of Methodist connections are attending its institution. The undeniable fact thus brought to light, that nearly one-third of the Church's patronage goes to an institution considered by many to be hostile to Church colleges, is a staggering blow to Wofford, a shame to Methodism, and a stinging rebuke to the lukewarmness of those whose duty it is to turn their young men to their own college, and thus seek to save them to their Church.

The Faculty of the College are devoting their time and energies, not only to their specific work of instruction, but to representing the College among the people. This, however, will accomplish but little, compared with what the preachers might do by each one's becoming, in the bounds of his own work, the agent of the College, for the solicitation of money and patronage, and the arousing of the people to the supporting of their own institution. If Wofford can gain a devoted agent in the person of every Methodist preacher, and win the rich endowment of the people's affection, her halls will soon be filled with students and her treasury with all needful endowment.

Your Board cannot too highly commend the present management of the institution. Its standard of scholarship is equal to that of the best institutions in the South; its Faculty rank among the best educators in the country, and it affords every facility for the most intellectual and moral training. Your Board would urge upon the preachers the great importance of collecting the assessments upon their various charges the ensuing year. Such collection is absolutely required to meet the current expenses of the institution.

Attention is respectfully asked to the Report of the Faculty of the College, submitted with this Report, and also to the Report of your Committee submitted last year, and found on page 21 of the Minutes of last Conference.

Columbia Female College.

It is with pleasure that we report the continued prosperity and usefulness of this institution of learning. With a full and efficient corps of teachers, an excellent course of study, a well conducted boarding department, and thoroughly furnished dormitories and recitation rooms, the College is well prepared to care for the health, comfort and mental training of its pupils. The College, we are pleased to know, is steadily growing in patronage and popularity, and there are, at present, a larger number of boarding pupils in attendance than at any period for a number of years. The College is most heartily commended to the members of the Church, and the citizens of the State, as a suitable place for the careful, Christian education of their daughters.

The Cokesbury Conference School.

The Rector, Mr. C. C. Reed, reports this school as having closed another year of successful school work. Fifty-eight pupils were enrolled during the year. Their deportment was good, and where the attendance was regular results were satisfactory.

Paine Institute.

We are pleased to report this institution still in operation, and doing good work. All persons who have not yet paid their subscriptions to this institution are urged to do so without delay. The proposed gift of $25,000 has not yet been paid, because of the failure of the Church to comply with the terms of the gift. The interest, however, is being paid by the generous donor, while waiting for the performance of the Church's undertaking set forth in the Report of your Board in the Minutes of the last Conference.

The Board requests the Bishop to make the following appointments:

Rev. A. Coke Smith, Professor in Wofford College.

Rev. O. A. Darby, D. D., President of Columbia Female College.

Rev. J. E. Watson, Principal of Brunson High School.

Rev. G. W. Walker, President of Paine Institute.

Rev. S. Lander, D. D., President of Williamston Female College.

Revs. T. G. Herbert, R. D. Smart, H. M. Mood, A. J. Stokes, J. B. Traywick, R. P. Franks, A. J. Cauthen, John A. Porter, J. E. Carlisle, and Messrs. J. A. Elkins, W. A. Black, Grandison Williams, R. H. Jennings, and ex officio the Presiding Elder of the Columbia District and the preachers in charge of Washington Street Church and Marion Street Church are nominated Trustees of the Columbia Female College.

The Presiding Elder of Cokesbury District, the preachers in charge of Cokesbury Circuit, Greenwood Circuit, Donnald's Circuit, and Abbeville Station, ex officio, with Messrs. W. A. Moore, G. W. Connor and C. L. Smith are nominated Trustees of the Cokesbury Conference School.

The following Committees of Examination have been appointed:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COLPORTAGE.

Your Committee appointed for devising a system of Conference colportage, the object of which is to disseminate our Church literature, especially the publications of our Nashville House, embracing Hymn Books, Disciplines, Sunday school literature and Bibles, and to solicit subscribers to the Southern Christian Advocate, beg leave to submit the following plan:

1st. That a Board of Colportage be constituted, consisting of a preacher and a layman from each Presiding Elder's District, to be elected by the Conference; and that the business and duty of the Board shall be to receive reports from the several District Committees hereinafter mentioned, and to condense and report the same to the Conference.

2nd. The Committee for each District shall consist of the Presiding Elder and the aforesaid layman, whose duty it shall be to authorize and employ a colporteur or colporteurs as the demands of the work may seem to warrant.

3rd. The remuneration of the colporteur shall consist of the profits on the books sold by him, and in no case shall an assessment be made for his support.

In furtherance of the foregoing plan, your Committee recommend to the Conference the election of the following laymen on the Board of Colportage: Charleston District, V. C. Dibble; Orangeburg District, H. G. Sheridan; Marion District, F. F. Covington; Florence District, W. A. Brunson; Sumter District, R. O. Purdy; Columbia District, John A. Elkins; Cokesbury District, J. Fuller Lyon; Greenville District, W. L. Wait; Spartanburg District, W. K. Blake; Chester District, G. J. Patterson. Respectfully submitted.

S. A. WEBER.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

It is gratifying to note the increasing opposition, both to the use and sale of intoxicating liquors. Everywhere public sentiment is being trained to frown down this iniquitous business, and the day has dawned when the Church must be awake to a question involving such immense issues. The temperance principles of our Methodism commit its ministry and laity to the temperance cause. While we are encouraged by our past achievements, we are still mindful that the end is not yet. Therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That we declare ourselves in sympathy with the prohibitory movement, and that we will use all legitimate means to advance prohibition.

2. That we condemn the use of intoxicants at social gatherings, and earnestly request our people not to indulge in such dangerous customs.

3. That the attention of the teachers of our Sunday schools be called to the importance of an early inculcation of temperance principles among the children.

4. That, as ministers, we will endeavor to preach at least once at each Church in our respective charges during the year on temperance.

5. That we commend the Temperance Worker to our people for their support, and that we will encourage, as far as possible, the circulation of temperance literature.

J. M. PIKE, Chairman.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday School Board has endeavored to secure information from all sources within its reach, and from the data furnished is prepared to report that the condition of Sunday school work within the bounds of our Conference affords ground for encouragement—greater, perhaps, than ever before. But while this statement is true, it would be far more so but for reasons, two of which we would emphasize:

1st. The great fact that the Sunday school should be composed of fathers and mothers, the middle-aged and old as well as of children, is largely ignored. If the highest point is ever reached in this great work, it will furnish the Church with a sight, the moral grandeur of which will attract the gaze of angels—old age and youth everywhere blended in the study of the word of God.

2nd. The second reason is, that the Sunday school is too generally superficial. The teacher asks the question; the pupil answers it; but often the great, vital truth which is contained in the answer is left unexplained and unknown, and thus opportunities of reaching the great end of all Sunday school work, viz., the leading of the pupil unto the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus, are largely thrown away. We may have numbers and all the aids and appliances furnished by modern Sunday school agencies, but unless our work leads directly to the cross and salvation it is in vain.

Methodism in her origin and subsequent history is committed to this work, and in this way. Let draw back who will, we cannot recede from this position. By the grace of God, the future of our Church is largely wrapped up in this work Let the doctrines of the Word of God be taught and impressed—let the Catechism have its proper and important place, and our future Church membership will be composed of Methodists, and Methodists with an experience. Let us not by work neglected, or poorly done, imperil these sacred interests. The importance of this injunction is solemnly apparent when we inform you that we have under our instruction 36,311 pupils, being an increase of 5,763, and a total of officers, teachers and pupils of 39,395. We report an average of one school to each Church, the greater proportion of which are carried on during the entire year. But few union schools are reported. With very few exceptions, Pastors report that special attention is being given to bringing the children to Christ and instructing them in the way of eternal life. From the information furnished, we find that 3,733 have been brought into the Church from our schools during the year, which is about half of the entire net increase in our Church membership. Blessed fact! How full of hope!

The very large majority of teachers are members of the Church The Sunday School Missionary Societies are growing in number and efficiency, and through these, working either in conjunction with the W. M. S. or the parent Board, about $1,200 has been raised. We would urge Pastors to see to it that our schools are in fact what they are in theory—every one a Sunday School Missionary Society, and that our children be trained, not only in the spiritual, but also in the material concerns of the Church. Let them intelligently comprehend the machinery of the Church and her holy aims, and efficient Stewards will not be wanting in the generation to come, nor will there be any lack of funds to meet the great demands of our work in all departments. The observance of Children's Day is becoming more common, and without exception good results are reported. We urge upon Pastors and Superintendents the observance of this day, leaving the time optional with each school.

Our children are reading—and what are they reading? The most probable answer is fearful. We cannot too earnestly urge upon Superintendents and parents the importance of patronizing our Sunday school publications, our books and Sunday School Visitor. Let the children have good food. And here we would most heartily congratulate the Conference upon the very excellent, and constantly improving periodical literature furnished by the Publishing House of our Church for the use of Sunday schools.

The Board recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That regarding the Sunday school of the present as comprising the Church of the future, we will do all in our power to implant in the hearts of the young those precious principles which, being matured, will spring up and become fruitful unto eternal life; and that we will endeavor to train the young in the doctrine and polity of our Church, thus preparing them for active and intelligent membership.

2nd That we will observe the order of the Conference requiring each Pastor to report, in a foot note in the statistical sheet, the number brought into the Church annually from the Sunday schools.

W. A. ROGERS,
Chairman Sunday School Board.

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

Sumter District.

The Minutes of the Sumter District Conference exhibit bad penmanship, superfluous terms, grammatical errors, unfinished sentences and bad orthography.

Instead of the term President being annexed to the signature of the presiding officer, we find the suffix P. E. A considerable part of what seems to have been the proceedings of the Conference is recorded under the heading of the term Appendix, and without the names of the President and Secretary. There is no roll of members.

Cokesbury District.

This record is elegantly kept in every particular.

Marion District.

While this record is very neatly kept, a few erasures and omissions occur.

Term pastor in charge is used for preacher in charge In the supplement there is no number or figure to distinguish the different reports or subjects. Two of the articles in the supplement are not referred to in the Minutes. Otherwise it is well kept.

Florence District.

This record is neatly and correctly kept in general.

Spartanburg District.

The Secretary has failed in a good many instances to make a proper use of commas and colons, and there are a few mistakes in orthography. About the only thing deserving of special criticism is the use of figures where words should have been written.

It should be stated that this journal is very neatly kept, and conveniently arranged with marginal references.

Columbia District.

This record has the suffix P. E. in connection with the presiding officer, whereas it should be President. Otherwise this record is very excellent.

Chester District.

The record of Chester District is well kept, except a few errors in orthography.

Orangeburg District.

This record is worthy of all commendation, except one blot.

Charleston District.

No unfavorable comment can be made on this record.

Greenville District.

In this record there is no complete roll of the members of the Conference. There is no mention of any one occupying the chair at any time, though Bishop Duncan is mentioned as having been present in the first session and making the opening prayer (and seems to have been present during the whole Conference.) The journal is signed by the P. E. as such, and not as President. Otherwise this journal is well kept.

J. WALTER DICKSON, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

The Committee on Minutes respectfully submit to the Conference the following Report:

The accounts of the publishers have been examined and found to be correct. There is a balance of $35.50 due the firm of Walker, Evans & Cogswell for printing the last Minutes, and we recommend that it be paid out of the funds collected this year. The funds on hand for the present year are as follows·

Receipts from the charges	$449 11
Due from Rev. W. C. Power	2 65
	$451 76

A few charges have failed to send in their assessment for Minutes. Your Committee recommend that a suitable number of copies be furnished these delinquents, so that they may keep informed as to the work of the Church. We have no changes in the form and style of Minutes to recommend; the plan of arrangement of the subject matter is an admirable one. We recommend that an assessment of $600.00 be made for the publication of the Minutes next year, as that amount is necessary for the work. We respectfully nominate Revs. W. C. Power, H. F. Chreitzberg and S. Lander to be editors and publishers of the Minutes, with the suggestion that they endeavor to reduce the price of publication by securing competitive bids from responsible printing houses. If the price can be reduced, we recommend that 5,000 copies be printed, as we deem that number necessary.

Respectfully submitted.

CHARLES PETTY, Chairman.
W. A. BETTS.
R. W. MAJOR.

W. A. BETTS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION OF SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The Committee appointed to contract for the further publication of the Southern Christian Advocate respectfully submit the following Report:

The Committee met first in Columbia on the 22d of June, and, after mature deliberation, instructed its Secretary to advertise for bids for a sheet larger than the one we now have, printed with new type, and on more substantial paper. In response to this advertisement the Committee had on file at its second meeting in Charleston, November 9th, six sealed bids—the present publishers declining to put in a bid. After carefully considering the bids before it for two days, and the whole of one night, the Committee accepted that of Mr. Charles A. Calvo, Jr., State Printer, of Columbia, S. C., and Publisher and Proprietor of the Columbia Register, and closed with him the contract hereto appended. (See contract.)

Your Committee respectfully offers the following resolutions, to wit:

Resolved, 1. That the Conference elect, on nomination of the Presiding Elders, a Committee to be known as "The Committee on Southern Christian Advocate," to discharge the duties required by the terms of the accompanying contract, and to hold office until the expiration of the same.

2. That the Conference hereby expresses its high appreciation of the ability and fidelity with which the Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell, former publishers of our paper, have carried out the terms of their contract with this body; and that they be authorized to send to our ministers, as their former agents, the unpaid subscriptions to the paper within the bounds of their respective charges. Said ministers to feel in duty bound to do all in their power to collect and forward the same.

Respectfully submitted.

R. D. SMART.
JNO. O. WILLSON.
R. H. JENNINGS.

OF SYMPATHY WITH OUR BRETHREN OF THE CHURCHES IN CHARLESTON AND VICINITY.

Whereas, The City of Charleston and its vicinity has been visited by a destructive earthquake, by which our church buildings have been greatly damaged; therefore,

Resolved, That we express our heartfelt sympathy with our afflicted brethren, and with all their fellow sufferers.

Resolved, That we are grateful to brethren abroad for the sympathy expressed and for the assistance rendered to our people in Charleston and its vicinage.

Resolved, That, where it has not been already done, each preacher in charge in our Conference shall, at an early day, take collections in their various charges for the purpose of aiding in the repair of our damaged church property in that community.

MEMOIRS.

REV. JOHN WATTS.

Rev. John Watts was born in Chesterfield County, S. C., February 24, 1801. In his 14th year he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1819 he made a profession of religion, and at once began actively to engage in the work of Christianity. He filled the office of Class Leader, Steward and Exhorter until 1824, when he was licensed to preach; and in 1825 was admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference. In January, 1827, he was received into full connection, which relation he sustained to the South Carolina Conference until the day of his death.

At the time Brother Watts became identified with the Church of his choice, there were hardships and trials to be encountered, but all the difficulties incident to an itinerant preacher's life never swerved him from duty, nor made him less true to the convictions of his mind and heart. For the sake of Christ he counted all these things as nothing, and with a sound body, a strong will and a clear and logical mind, sustained and directed by faith in the Son of God, he devoted his long life to the one work. He consecrated his all to Christ, and though his lot was frequently hard, his way rough and his work difficult, yet he faced it all with confidence in God. Brother Watts was always cheerful. His trust in God made radiant his life; and even in old age he seemed to live for the future. He delighted to associate with his brethren, and instead of musing sadly over the past, and talking despondingly of the future, he would express himself as satisfied with the one and ready for the other. His view of self, ever humble, twice during his ministry he refused the responsible office of Presiding Elder, choosing to be little and unknown to the outside world. He often said humility is the first step in the Christian life, and the last as we enter our heavenly home. While he was this retiring, yet he was positive and resolute. He was alike indifferent to either praise or blame. He was devotedly pious, faithful and true. In 1872 Brother Watts was superannuated, and while he was at times able to preach, yet he was never more able to take an appointment. Little more than two years before his death he received a severe injury by a fall, from which he never recovered. At times he suffered much from this hurt, but to the last you could see his fortitude and the struggles of his indomitable will. When suffering from the infirmities of age, the subject of trust in God would arrest his attention, and his eyes would flash with joy.

On the 6th of last June, at his home in Greenville County, surrounded by his loving daughters, who watched over him in his last affliction, he breathed his last in peace. He was buried at Few's Chapel on the following day, to sleep until he shall awake in the likeness of his Saviour, to be forever with the Lord.

REV. HUGH A. C. WALKER.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints."—Psalm cxvi, 15.

Rev. Hugh A. C. Walker, a holy man of God, who, after faithfully serving his own generation by the will of God for more than fifty years, sweetly fell on sleep at the residence of his son, Major J. B. White, of Marion, S. C., 22d May, 1886, in the 77th year of his age, and the 56th of his ministry as a traveling preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace. Brother Walker no doubt had his faults, for he was human; but if he had a fault, I, in an intimate acquaintance with him of more than half a century, failed to discover it. Brother Walker as a man was meek, gentle, patient, persevering, sincere, honest and accurate in everything. Calm, dignified, never confused, never in a hurry, but always in time, always prompt and punctual in his dealings with his fellow men, and hence he ever had a good report of them that are without. He had the confidence of all, high and low, rich and poor, white and colored. As a Christian, Brother Walker walked with God. From the hour of his conversion, which occurred early in life, he was wholly consecrated to God and His most holy service. Throughout life, even to the day of his death, his daily walk and conversation were ever in keeping with the teachings of God's blessed word.

In him the grace of humility was largely developed. He led a consistent Christian life devoted to God. He loved God supremely; he loved His law, and he had great peace. He did earnestly search the Scriptures. Would that all our young brethren could see with what care the margin of nearly every page in his Bible was marked with notes, comparisons and comments. He was wise in the Scriptures. He loved his fellow men. He had a warm heart like his beloved Master. His heart would embrace all mankind and bring them all to the inheritance of the Saints in light. He was eminently social in his feelings and habits. One said of him: "Brother Walker carries his heart in his hands;" and hence he drew all to him. He was greatly beloved wherever he went. The little children loved "Uncle Walker." All felt in his presence that he was a man of God. They took knowledge of him that he had been with Jesus. As a Methodist preacher, Brother Walker, while liberal to all, was a true Wesleyan. He loved the Church of his early choice. He loved her doctrines, her discipline, her institutions, her ordinances, her modes of worship, her hymns of praise, her catholic spirit, and perhaps no man amongst us understood more fully or appreciated more highly the genius of Methodism than he, and accordingly he was looked up to and trusted. In matters of Church discipline he had the confidence of all his brethren. His opinions had great influence in the councils of the Church, both in the Annual and General Conferences. As a preacher, Brother Walker, like young Timothy, from a child had known the Holy Scriptures, which were able to make him wise, and did make him wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus, and by which he became, like Apollos, "mighty in the Scriptures," rightly dividing the Word of Truth, throwing light on every subject he undertook. He was a clear, sound, logical expounder of the Word of God; an intelligent, instructive preacher of the glorious Gospel of the blessed God. His manner in the pulpit was sometimes a little too slow for the popular taste, but he was always interesting and edifying to the attentive listener. No doubt many redeemed souls who were brought to Christ through his ministry were waiting with rapturous joy at the pearly gates to greet him on that happy day of his transit from the toils and cares of earth to the joys and bliss of heaven, and to welcome him to his everlasting rest.

As a member of the Conference, Brother Walker was highly esteemed, loved and honored. He had in a peculiar degree the confidence of his brethren, serving them for many years as their representative to the General Conference and on various Boards of trust and responsibility.

He was admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference in Fayetteville, N. C., in January, 1831, and in all the relations of an itinerant Methodist preacher for more than fifty years of effective service—as a junior on a Circuit, as preacher in charge, Station, Mission or District, or as agent for some Church enterprise—in every position he acquitted himself faithfully, acceptably and usefully. As a Presiding Elder he excelled. Brother Walker was born in Antrim County, near Belfast, Ireland, but came with his parents in early life to this country, and settled in South Carolina, where he spent nearly all of his long and useful life, like his Divine Master, "going about doing good." He never was robust, but always made the best use of what he had. After more than fifty years of active and efficient service in the regular itinerant work, and now nearing his three score and ten in age, his health and strength so far gave way that he felt himself reluctantly compelled to retire from the effective work and to ask for a superannuated relation. But still, though in feebleness of body, he continued to do what he could for the advancement of the cause he loved so well, for the old fire still burned within him as heretofore. He answered to his name at every roll call at Conference except the last, when he had grown too feeble to attend, yet still filling his place in the House of God until the end came, and the Master graciously bade him lay down his well-worn armor and cease at once to work and live. He spent his last earthly Sabbath in the sanctuary of God among his worshippers, and his last act there was to point a penitent at the altar to the Lamb of God as the Saviour of sinners.

Verily, "he being dead, yet speaketh,"

WM. MARTIN.

REV. ABNER ERVINE.

Rev. Abner Ervine was born in Lenoir, N. C., November 14, 1828. Very early in life he was brought to Sumter County, S. C., where he was reared by his uncle. He received the educational advantages afforded by the common schools of the country at that period, and by diligence laid a good foundation, upon which he built well in his maturer years. Especially was he diligent in the study of the glorious doctrines of Methodism, and he loved those doctrines with a deep and steady affection. Early in life by the preaching and godly deportment of Bishop Capers, and others, he was religiously impressed, but it was not until the Autumn of 1846 that he found peace by believing on the Lord Jesus Christ. About this he had become deeply convicted of his personal need of salvation, and sought and found pardon and peace. His conversion was clear and satisfactory. He said to the writer just prior to his death, that he had never doubted his conversion at that time. Soon after his conversion he felt that he was called of God to the work of the ministry, and at once applied for license to preach. Thus at the age of 18 years he laid himself upon the altar of the Church, and began his great life work. In January, 1847, he was admitted, on trial, into the South Carolina Conference, and for 39 years did the work of a faithful minister of the Lord Jesus Christ. From the mountains to the seaboard, through heat and cold, and in peril and suffering often times, always and everywhere, when duty called he cheerfully responded. As a preacher all may be told in few words. He was a good preacher. His sermons were plain and practical. He made not so much effort to adorn with the figures of rhetoric as to present the plain truth plainly. He trusted in the power of the word to convict and save. So it did, for he had many seals to his ministry. In December, 1883, he was made supernumerary, and December, 1884, he was superannuated. Thus it will be seen that he was in the regular work for 36 years, supernumerary one year, and a superannuate two years. During the last two years of his life he resided at Black's, S. C., where the writer was intimately associated with him. He was a deeply pious man, fully committed to the work of an itinerant Methodist preacher. He felt a deep concern in whatever pertained to the interests of the Church. Ardent in his affections for his brethren of the ministry, and untiring in his zeal for the cause of the Master. Only a short time before his death he assisted, as far as he was able, in a revival meeting in Union County, which he greatly enjoyed. He preached his last sermon on August the 8th, 1886. After preaching on that day with great difficulty, on account of the irritated condition of his throat, he was prostrated to rise no more. For nearly three weeks he suffered greatly but patiently, and passed away in peace August 26, 1886.

"Servant of God, well done,
Rest from thy loved employ."

REV. GEORGE HENDLY WELLS.

Rev. George Hendly Wells was born in Green County, East Tennessee, December 7, 1834, and died at his home in Timmonsville, S. C., February 14, 1886. Brother Wells entered the S. C. Conference in 1858, and served the Master faithfully on Circuits, in the army and on stations for twenty-five years.

In 1883, having suffered from paralysis for several years, he was granted a superannuated relation, and on the 3d of October of that year he moved to Timmonsville to await the final move from the Church below to the Church above.

Brother Wells was a preacher of more than ordinary ability. He could have filled acceptably and profitably any appointment in the S. C. Conference. He was an organizer in Church work, having at Timmonsville the first auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society of the South Carolina Conference, January 24, 1879. He had also the honor of being among the first to organize the Darlington County Sunday School Convention, and was its first President. It is significant that his last official act was an address before the Quarterly Conference on Saturday, the day before his death, in the interest of the Sunday school cause; thus making true his own statement some years previous: "I expect to go down battling for the children." Like Barnabus, Brother Wells was "a good man, full of the Holy Ghost and of faith." After the special meeting in Charleston, conducted by Dr. J. S. Inskip, he experienced the blessing of perfect love, which doctrine he preached both in and out of the pulpit. In his diary of February 6, 1886, he writes: "Abstinence day! how blessed its sweet rest in Jesus. The book in which I am reading a chapter each day is a delightful one. The 12th chapter treats about God. Is He everything? I answer, yes! yes! As I look back over my past life I see glimpses of His hand; and my faith in Him makes me know that He doeth all things well. It was a wonder to many that I should be sent back to Timmonsville from Trinity, but I know now that what was a trial to me and my family was a blessing. Jesus corrected me and kept me humble by it until I realized in my heart conscious communion with him, and in a moment took out of me all the wickedness that was in me, and filled me with pure love to God and man. I have grown greatly since then, and now I see the mistakes and errors of my former life, and wait to be yet enlightened more fully in the knowledge and love of God. This book—'Christian Secret of a Happy Life,' has brought me nearer to the blessed Jesus each day. My own heart has told me that I ought to be entirely laid upon the altar, and now I am waiting to be entirely laid there. O! Jesus help me, I am Thine. I am willing to speak for Thee, to do for Thee, and, if need be, to die for Thee." These quotations reveal to us the true spirit of this man of God.

After leading in prayer during the morning service, the day before his death, Brother Wells said: "I want to give my testimony: I am dead to sin, and alive unto Christ. I know I am His child, and if faithful to the end I am sure I shall have a home in heaven. The prayer meeting last Thursday night was the happiest hour of my life." He attended church again at night, and on returning home prepared for the approaching Sabbath. Having retired to rest about 11 o'clock, he said to his wife: "I cannot swallow," and spoke no more. Paralysis had done its work.

"At midnight came the cry,
To meet thy God prepare;
He woke and caught his Captain's eye.
Then strong in faith and prayer,
His spirit with a bound
His tent at sunrise, on the ground,
A darkened ruin lay."

He had entered through the gates into the city.

J. W. HUMBERT.

REV. CHARLES CARROLL FISHBURNE.

Rev. Charles Carroll Fishburne was born in Barnwell County, S. C., March 4, 1845. He was the son of intelligent and pious parents. He was under serious impressions from his early boyhood, and joined the Methodist Church on probation when but a lad, but was not received into the Church until after his conversion under the preaching of Rev. H. A. C. Walker in 1858.

Soon after this he attended the Conference School at Cokesbury, where he maintained the character of a consistent, working Christian. He bore himself well during the war, where he served as a private in the ranks. He was a good soldier; and, what is better, he was a good soldier of Jesus Christ. He was licensed to exhort in his nineteenth year, and to preach in 1863.

From 1863 to 1872, at which time he joined the South Carolina Conference, he was quite effective in the local ranks, and at different times served as a supply on Circuits convenient to his plantation in Barnwell County. He did effective work on Circuits from 1872 to 1885, closing his earthly labors on Santee Circuit December, 1885. He was a faithful laborer in the vineyard of the Lord. He worked for immediate results, and it was his satisfaction to see the fruits of his consecrated labors. He was a good preacher after the Wesleyan type. His sermons followed our Standards of Doctrine, and abounded in the words and illustrations of the Scriptures. He prepared them closely, and frequently delivered them with great liberty. His home life was beautiful. He leaves a widow and eight children rich only in the legacy of his good name.

JAMES W. KOGER.

Rev. James W. Koger was born in Colleton County, S. C., August 10th, 1852, and fell at his post as a Missionary of the Cross at San Paulo, Empire of Brazil, January 28th, 1886.

He was descended from a family who were among the first to connect themselves with the early Methodists of South Carolina. His paternal grandfather, Rev. James Koger, was one of the members of the South Carolina Conference in the first part of the present century. His own father was a local preacher in our Church. From childhood he exhibited those pure and lovely traits of character which afterwards so beautifully adorned his noble manhood. At eight years of age he read the New Testament from beginning to end. At sixteen he conducted family worship in his widowed mother's home, thus early commencing that active work in the Master's vineyard which he never ceased until called to his reward. His conversion, which took place when he was a mere lad, manifested itself so clearly and fully in his character and general deportment, that there was no room for doubt in regard to the depth and genuineness of the work. This blessed experience was realized under the ministry of the Rev.

Andrew Green. He was received into full connection in the Church soon after his conversion, and was licensed to preach while a student at Wofford College. While at college he was a diligent student, improving every opportunity of developing his mind and preparing himself for the work to which God had called him.

He graduated in the Summer of 1878, and in December of the same year was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference.

In 1879–80 he was stationed at Kingstree, S. C., where he did faithful work. I was peculiarly impressed with the self-sacrificing and catholic spirit of our brother at this time. His entire being seemed to be enlisted in the work of the Lord.

January 7th, 1880, he was married to Miss Fannie S. Smith, a daughter of one of our most devoted and useful local preachers, in whom he obtained in every sense of the term a "helpmeet" indeed. After he had been accepted by the Board of Missions for the Foreign work he was appointed to the Clarendon Circuit until arrangements could be made for his departure for Brazil. During the few months he spent on the Clarendon Circuit he concentrated all his energies of body and mind upon his work.

Brother Koger was ordained Deacon in 1880 and Elder in 1881.

March 26th, 1881, he bade farewell to friends and native land, and sailed for Brazil to engage in Missionary work in that vast Empire. After he became "our Missionary to Brazil," his field of labor being so greatly enlarged, his work was brought more prominently before the Church and the public, and in this way his exalted character and influence were brought to bear more extensively upon his fellow men. That he was well qualified for the work to which he had been appointed by the Church cannot be questioned.

He was endowed with intellectual qualities of a high order. Among these we notice his quick apprehension, sound and discriminating judgment, retentive memory, and his capacity for acquiring knowledge of all kinds, and using that knowledge wisely and well. But the qualities that peculiarly fitted him for the great work to which he was called were of a spiritual nature, and are worthy of more than a passing notice. Conspicuous among these were his deep humility and unaffected modesty, his sympathy and disinterested charity, his unwavering faith and unquenchable zeal. With such elevated traits of character as those we have just mentioned, he was evidently a "chosen vessel," prepared of God for the work whereunto he was called.

As soon as he arrived in Brazil he began to work, as far as circumstances permitted, with his usual energy and perseverance. While engaged in the study of the Portuguese language, which was necessary in order that he might be prepared to preach to the people in their native tongue, he devoted all the time he could spare from his studies to the work of building up the cause of Christ among the English speaking people with whom he came in contact. As soon as he was able to speak the Portuguese language he began "to preach and teach Jesus" to all classes of the people, as far as time and opportunity permitted. In this work he met with many obstacles, and at times with bitter and determined opposition. The chains of Popery have been so long around the people of Brazil, that it is very difficult, and in some respects a dangerous work, to attempt to establish Protestant Christianity in that Empire. And yet our Koger, with the martyr spirit which characterized the first "Missionaries of the Cross," went fearlessly on in his great and good work of preaching the "glorious Gospel of the blessed God" to the inhabitants of this priest-ridden and benighted land. As evidence of his zeal and fidelity in his life-work, we notice his appointment to the office of Superintendent of the Brazil Mission. Though the responsibilities of this position were very great, and the work required most arduous, yet we find him constantly engaged in direct personal effort to bring souls to Christ. He talked to the people wherever he met them, and also the Romish priests, about their individual salvation, and offered Christ as a present and all-sufficient Saviour to all who would listen to his appeals.

He did not even pass by the miserable beggars who are found in the streets and highways of that country, but invited them to come to Jesus that they might find rest to their souls. Thus, during all the years he lived at Brazil was he in "labors abundant," "in season, out of season," letting no opportunity pass unimproved, but consecrating all his energies and talents to the work of leading men to Christ. His life was so pure and blameless, and his labors were so earnest and self-sacrificing, that he won the respect and confidence of Roman Catholics, and even of the Jesuits, and after his death there were many expressions of regret at his loss, and declarations were made which indicated that his character and work had made very deep and favorable religious impressions upon the people of that land. Doubtless the "bread he has cast upon the waters" in that great Empire "will be gathered after many days."

In his last illness his sufferings were so great that he did not speak much, but when he did, it was always with a strong assurance of his implicit confidence in the great sacrificial death of our kinsman Redeemer.

The disease which caused his death and thus deprived the Church of one of her most devoted and useful ministers was contracted by him in the discharge of his duties as Superintendent of the Brazil Mission. Truly, he fell at his post, fully equipped for the work in which he was so zealously engaged, yet ready for the summons when it came for him to exchange the toils of earth for the rest of heaven.

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

Its Spirit is Purely Benevolent, its Object Being to Aid the Families of Deceased Preachers Within Thirty Days After Death. Officers, See Conference Boards, Etc.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

I.—CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I. This Association shall be called THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD.

ART. II. The Officers of this Association shall be a President, a Vice-President and a Secretary and Treasurer, who shall hold their offices until their successors shall be elected, and who together shall constitute a Board of Trustees, for the investment and application of all funds that may come into their hands.

The offices of Secretary and Treasurer shall be held by one person.

ART. III. An annual meeting of the Brotherhood shall be held during the session of the Conference, at such time and place as may be designated by the President, at which meeting the officers of the Association shall be elected.

ART. IV. Beneficiary membership in the Brotherhood shall be restricted to the traveling preachers of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, who shall pay an initiation or entrance fee of fifty cents. Any person may become a non-beneficiary member without paying an initiation fee.

ART. V. On the death of a beneficiary, each surviving beneficiary member shall be assessed three dollars, and each non-beneficiary one, to be paid into the Treasury within thirty days from date of the notice of assessment.

After deducting the expense of collecting and disbursing the mortuary benefit, the remainder shall be paid to the person or persons designated in the certificate of membership. In case the deceased member did not direct how his mortuary benefit should be applied, it shall be paid to his widow; but if there be no widow then it shall be divided equally among his minor children and any adult child needing aid. But if there be none of these, then it shall revert to the Brotherhood, to be invested as Article VI directs.

ART. VI. Any funds coming in to the Brotherhood in any way (mortuary assessments always excepted) shall be invested by the Trustees, and the interest solely used as a supplementary fund to increase the mortuary benefit.

ART. VII. A beneficiary member who shall fail to pay any assessment, due as aforesaid, within thirty days from date of notice, shall forfeit his membership in the Brotherhood, but may be reinstated in a vote at the next annual meeting, on the payment of his arrearages.

II.—BY-LAWS.

1. The President shall sign all certificates, checks and orders, and perform the duties usually required of a presiding officer; and in the absence of the President his duties shall be performed by the Vice-President.

2. The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Board of Trustees and of the Brotherhood, and perform the duties usually required of a Secretary. He shall, upon the notification of the death of a beneficiary member, communicate the fact to the surviving members, notifying them to forward the mortuary fee to the Treasurer.

3. The Treasurer shall receive and care for all funds coming to the Brotherhood, and shall disburse and invest the same, as directed by the Constitution and By-Laws. The expenses of notification, on the part of the Secretary or Treasurer, and the printing, etc., to be retained out of amount collected on an assessment, as may be necessary.

4. When any beneficiary member of this Brotherhood shall cease to be a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference, his beneficiary membership shall cease.

5. No certificate of membership in the Brotherhood shall be assigned, transferred, or in any way pledged as security for debt.

6. No one shall be admitted to beneficiary membership except during the session of the Annual Conference.

REDUCED IN PRICE, BUT NOT IN SIZE.

To meet the wants of the people, many of whom are unable to pay ONE DOLLAR per bottle, we have reduced the price of our Dollar Bottle to Seventy-five Cents, without reducing the size; and it now stands without a rival, as being the largest bottle of a good medicine at the lowest price, and we pledge ourselves to keep it up to the high standard of excellence it has always held.

Read the following Testimonial from Rev. Lucius Cuthbert, of Aiken, S. C.

My experience with "Simmons' Hepatic Compound or Liver Cure." Worn out with dyspepsia, and compelled to resign the charge of my church on account of ill health, I met Rev. Mr. Loyall, of Graniteville, S. C., who advised me to use your "Hepatic Compound or Liver Cure." I faithfully followed the directions, and in the course of a month I gained rapidly in flesh and felt the elasticity of health. After a vacation of six weeks and the trial of your medicine, I returned to my home and resumed my work as a minister of the Gospel. At present I am able to supply three churches regularly, and feel that, humanly speaking, I am indebted to Simmons' Hepatic Compound, to a simple diet, and to outdoor exercise for the privilege of preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

WILLIAMSTON FEMALE COLLEGE,

WILLIAMSTON, S. C.

A Live, Thorough Up-Country School for Girls and Young Ladies.

AS CHEAP AS THE CHEAPEST. AS GOOD AS THE BEST.

While it furnishes ample facilities for the ornamental accomplishments, its chief characteristic is thorough scholarship in the solid branches of education. Careful attention is given to the fundamental studies, even to the end of the College Course.

Young ladies who earnestly desire to be thoroughly accomplished, and who prize education more than graduation, are always pleased and profited by its methods.

THE SPRING SESSION, 1887,

Beginning Monday, February 7, continues twenty weeks, and is divided into four sections of five weeks each, beginning respectively March 14, April 13, and May 23. A pupil may enter at the beginning of any section and remain to the close of the Session, June 23.

THE FALL SESSION, 1887,

Will open Monday, September 12, and be divided in like manner into sections, beginning October 17, November 21, and January 2, 1888.

Graduation may occur at the close of any section, whenever a pupil shall have completed the full course of study. The pupils, however, are not put on the stage before a public audience—not even at their graduation.

During 1886 five pupils graduated, two at one time, and the others at three different times—all without expense, publicity or parade.

Every approved pupil whose sectional average is eighty-five per cent., or more, has a discount of from ten to seventy per cent. from her next section's regular tuition.

N. B.—The Institution is not a Methodist school. The South Carolina Conference, at its recent Session in Orangeburg, while declining to accept the moral control of the College, as tendered by the Directors, on the sole ground that its acceptance would bring it into unseemly competition with the Columbia Female College, nevertheless spoke of its work in terms of highest commendation, heartily endorsing the recommendation of its Board of Education that the present incumbent be reappointed to the Presidency of the Institution.

With this flattering recognition of the work of the College, and the warm endorsement of its President by the South Carolina Conference, the proprietors do not hesitate to commend it to the confidence and patronage of the Methodist public throughout our bounds.

"EDITOR POPE OF THE COLUMBIA REGISTER.—We consider this gentleman the finest newspaper writer in South Carolina. And certainly he is one of the most learned men in our whole country. That Col. Pope is the finest newspaper writer in South Carolina is a fact which is by no means new to us. But it has been freshly and pleasantly impressed upon our mind within the last fortnight, in seeing his admirable versatility, his easy veering from the gravest to the gayest, and in noting and feeling withal his high, pure, manly, sensible Southern spirit. Col. Pope is a man who will never make rosy speeches at the North. His editorial leader of Friday morning last entitled 'The Southern New York Society' commands our utmost admiration and endorsement."
